

Dear Sleuth,

Thank you for booking an exciting evening of mystery and intrigue provided by Murder Incorporated Limited and Scaford Hall.

Each evening is set around a theme and your theme for tonight is detailed below, along with instructions for how to play and an itinerary. We hope you will have a fantastic evening and we look forward to your company.

THEME	ITINERARY	HOW TO PARTICIPATE
1943 Tonight is a rousing welcome home party for local hero Totty Salmon and his Concert Party who have been away entertaining our gallant soldiers on the front line for the past 6 months. No doubt we can all look forward to a good old 'knees up'. Hopefully some of the wounded officers, recovering in Scaford Hall Infirmary will come along. Maybe boys, some of the nurses will be there too! Paul De Chartney, the owner of Scaford Hall, converted part of it into a hospital for injured troops. But the shock news is that Paul, after a whirlwind romance whilst in London, has married - and what's more he's installed his bride, Eve, at Scaford Hall!!!! Someone has even gone as far as sending Eve poison pen letters. Could it be there are a few broken hearts? Totty has put out the call for new members to join his concert party. So don't be shy today, and have a go at the auditions and you too could soon be singing whilst dodging enemy bullets.	The event will start with a drinks reception at 7.30pm followed by dinner at 8.00pm. The Major and friends will join you from the beginning. They are the victims and the suspects and you are the sleuths. The action will unfold around you and you will have the opportunity to interrogate all the suspects. Remember the time is 1943 so you may be attending as a nurse from the hospital, an air raid warden, an ammunition worker, land girl, Home Guard, any one of the Armed forces or Allies, or even as the local Spiv. We are sure you will have fun thinking of lots more. And the Major may even award a prize for the best costume. Don't forget your ration coupons! You can be involved as much as you want, or if you prefer to enjoy the evening in a less dramatic way, just sit back, relax and be assured that we can promise you excellent fare and lively entertainment Remember, if you arrive at the hotel after 7.30pm the plot will already be underway and you may immediately be at a disadvantage in your sleuthing. The case should be wrapped up shortly after coffee. With a bit of luck.	Bring a note pad and a pen with you to jot down everything you see and hear. Interrogate the suspects. They may have something to hide. For those of you attending as dedicated sleuths, remember, this is not a time for true British reserve, do not be frightened or delicate about asking those awkward questions. All the participants have a story to unfold and they cannot do that without you Listen carefully to what the suspects are saying to each other. Watch closely for any hidden facial expression that may give away a guilty secret. Be suspicious and trust your instincts. Above all, stay alert and keep your eyes and ears open. Trust no one. Remember, the person sitting next to you may be a murderer.
